Judges Resume – Leanne Irwine (WA)

I started my adventure into the pure bred dog world at the age of sixteen, when my family got our first pure bred dog, a Border Collie.

This dog was shown in a number of shows, but not titled. I trialled her successfully in obedience and gained her CD title in three trials with scores exceeding 185.

I purchased the tricolour Border Collie, Ambajaye Tri The Tartan to compete in agility. “Poet” became my new pal and was a member of the ‘PAL Superdogs’ Team for a number of years.

I co-owned the first Australian Shepherd in WA, a black tricolour male from Leesway Kennels in NSW. “Buddy” was the first Champion titled male in WA. I had two more Aussies from Mandy Ch Leesway Master Magic (Merlin), with whom I had much success in the conformation ring and Ch Leesway Dressd In Velvet (Dallas).

Dallas became the mother of the first Aussie litter bred in WA, from which five of the eight surviving puppies from the litter of eleven were shown to their conformation titles. Also from this litter were the first two Aussies in South Africa. Both of these girls, sent to Jenni Gray, were campaigned to their Championship titles.

A steady stream of Aussies headed West to become part of our family. Ch Silvanwood Final Option (Opie), a son of Am/Aust Ch Ebbtide Main Squeeze, Ch Sasin American Tonka (IID) and Ch Sasin Storm Cloud (IID) all called Western Australia home for a greater or lesser part of their lives. My involvement in the breed cannot reach a conclusion without mentioning the profound impact that “Storm” had on my life. Storm came to WA (with Tonka) at the age of almost 5, having already amassed many hundred points in her home state in Queensland. While Tonka left for stud duties, Storm stayed. We had a great deal of success together, becoming the first Best In Group and In Show winning female in WA. Storm also won Best of Breed at the Perth Royal Show 4 times, with one of those also ending up as Runner up to Best Exhibit in Group and the final one in 2006 at the age of 10 years, when she was retired from the show ring.

I imported the Blue Merle female Ch Meshlacon’s Sparkl InSide Her (Imp USA) who I successfully campaigned to her conformation title, despite not fancying male judges. Emma was bred before entering quarantine to the lovely Meshlacons Sharp Dressd Man and produced a litter of four puppies. From this litter came Ch Hotlee West Side Story (IID) (Malibu) and Ch Hotlee in the Heat OthNight (Reno). Reno is the sire of Ch Sarasota Urban Legend (Scam) who needs no introduction.

Scam is the father of many titled offspring and grand offspring, one of whom I shared the past 10+ years with. That dog is Aust Sup Ch Mysq! All For The Legend aka “Bo”.

Bo came to me as a two year old who had been shown sparingly, but had not amassed any points towards his conformation title. Bo won Best in Group and In Show awards in many states in Australia and was the first Supreme Champion Australian Shepherd in Western Australia.

I have imported two other Aussies to Australia from USA. Koala-T Hallelujah I Love HerSo (Glory) and Meshlacon’s Bindi at Hotnote (Bindi) who was successfully shown to her conformation title, gaining many of her points in Tasmania with my friend Tull Luttrell.

I currently have a couple of Aussies at home, whom I am showing and who are direct offspring of Bo.

I have had many roles in the Canine world, being club secretary, trial secretary etc. I gained my Working Dog Conformation licence on 2007. Currently, I hold the positions of Group Five convenor (Dogs West 2016 to present), Club Secretary – Collie & Shetland Sheepdog Club of WA, State Breed Survey Registrar – GSDA of WA.

I have had the pleasure of judging Specialty Shows for the Border Collie Club of QLD and the Border Collie Club of NSW. This is my first Australian Shepherd Specialty judging appointment.

I would like to thank everyone for their entry and wish you all the very best of luck.

Remember – you all take the best dog home.

Leanne Irwine
