Shellie Marshall (Vic)

I've been immersed in the dog world since I was a child. My mother breeds and shows Weimaraners (Grauhund Kennels), so attending dog shows was our weekend routine. My first junior handlers class was at age 7 when I won the Royal Show handlers class with over 30 entrants. In my years competing in the Junior Handlers I also won the State Final 3 times.

As I grew, I joined my mother in handling Weimaraners and also showed English Springer Spaniels for Wongan Kennels, among others. Being a regular exhibitor I developed strong friendships with other young people and this is where I met Jonathan Marshall, who was visiting Australia when Jonathan's mother Pam judged the Victorian Dalmatian club show. They moved over here shortly after and my involvement with Pampard Kennels and Dalmatians became a lot stronger. Jonathan's mother passed away in 1997 which is when Jonathan and I took over the kennel.

Today, Jonathan, my daughter Emily and I are now breeders of Multiple Best in Show winning Dalmatians. We've had some proud moments, such as winning Best and Runner up in Shows at Dalmatian Nationals, and Melbourne Royal wins with Puppy in Show, Runner up in Show 2 times, Best in Show 3rd and the ultimate Best in Show at the 2008 Melbourne Royal.

We have been fortunate to have bred many beautiful Dalmatians over the years, but three of our most famous dogs would be Freddy 'Sup Ch Pampard Parisian Prince', his daughter Pebbles 'Sup Ch Pampard Phrench Kisses' and his granddaughter Mia 'Sup Ch Pampard Phirst Class' all of which were multi Best in Show winners at both Championship show and Specialty shows as well as Best in Show placings at Royals.

As breeders our kennel was extremely proud to win the first Best Breeders Team in Show at the Melbourne Royal in 2013.

Alongside Dalmatians, I am also strongly involved in breeding and showing Petite and Grand Basset Griffon Vendeens with my partner Gwen under the TumTums prefix.

I am actively involved in the dog world. As the Group leader for the Non-Sporting judges training in Victoria I immensely enjoy the learning and education of our judges training scheme. I have been apart of the Dogs Victoria management and conformation committees and following on from my Junior Handler days, I am now the Chair of the Australian Junior Handler working party.

I became an All Breeds Judge in 2013. Over my judging career so far, I've had the privilege of judging across Australia, New Zealand, America, Europe, and Japan, China, Indonesia, Thailand and the Philippines.

I'm thrilled to be judging The Dalmatian Club of Victoria's 79th Championship Show.
