LIBRARY & ARCHIVES CHAIR MESSAGE

Welcome to this our first weekend shared with Dogs on Show. Very sincere thanks for supporting us with such a wonderful entry which is vital for the Committee to continue its work in collecting and preserving all items of historical and archival interest.

The Committee has an information display of what we have so far in the Library building and invites you to explore the wealth of material available for research in many breeds. Pedigrees and catalogues as well as many books, memorabilia, artworks that have been donated by members are on hand for reference and viewing.

Thank you to all our Judges and Stewards, Dogs NSW Representatives, Official photographer and of course the Committee members and others helping out on the day.

On a more serious note, the dog world has many 'unsung heroes' so it would be remiss of me not to mention the passing of a past Chair of the Library & Committee – Colleen Roberts. In memory of her contribution to the aims and ideals of the Committee we have a sash awarded for each BIS winner.

Best of luck to all and enjoy the day.

Maria Wheeler

CHAIR LIBRARY & ARCHIVES COMMITTEE

COLLEEN JUNE ROBERTS – remembered today as a past Chair of Library & Archives Committee amongst her many accomplishments

Colleen June Roberts (nee Hackett) was born on 6 June 1935 having a younger brother 'Harry' who went onto breed & show Champion Rough Collies. Her mother came from a very large family that always met every Christmas, Colleen's most favorite times of the year. She married Robert Roberts and had 2 children, Craig and Christina.

Craig's 12th birthday present was a German Shepherd Dog that was shown at the first GSD National in Ryde, Sydney in 1967 and was 'placed' in a huge Baby Puppy Class. You would think that for a pup's first time in the ring by a first time 12yr old exhibitor, the 'show' bug would have been enticing but quite the opposite. It was not until the very early '75 that Colleen was given a pup from Christina's first litter - Ch Borzaja Avoski Armavir who became her constant companion and quite literally her heart dog, producing BIS winners at both Specialty and All Breeds level.

Colleen had a great sense of humour: As a consequence of appointments at two rather prestigious shows in Canada, Colleen decided that 'professional' photos were needed, however... her comment when viewing the finished product was 'well, we had better hope that we are met at the airport by friends because no-one will recognise us from these!' As Colleen approached her late 50's, she stated 'sometime soon I am going to be too old to run dogs around the ring, I need to get a judges licence and point my finger professionally!' and she did, attaining All Breeds in the mid-2000. Colleen had judged in South Africa including BIS, Thailand, USA and Canada as well as judging on both North and South Island of New Zealand and regularly in all States of Australia, as also awarded the first Neuter Challenge in Australia at Alice Springs, NT.

In the late 80's she nominated to become a Management Committee/Director of what eventually became (over the years) the Royal New South Wales Canine Council Ltd. She was re-elected for several 3 year terms until mid-2000 holding many positions including Chairperson of several committees over the years and she always made sure that the exhibitors had fun at the shows she ran- such as the Spring Fair International Dog Show and for Library & Archive with assistance from Jennifer Lawrence she organised:

- The "Olympic 2000" show had a certain Lhaso Apso exhibitor in high heels and fishnet stockings push Betty Stepkovitch in a wheelchair into Ring 1 to light a fabricated 'Olympic Urn' to start the lunch time fun for Group exhibitors to compete at events like egg & spoon races, where Lynne Lee and Carmen Kingston (laced together at their ankles) perform their PB to win the race. Of note: the Best overall Group at this Sporting event was awarded to the Non-Sporting Competitors!
- "The Royal Show" when Don Day dressed as Prince Philip, Peggy Bentham as the Queen Mum and the whole cast of the Royal Family arrived in a horse drawn carriage.
- The "Priceless Banana Show" to raise funds for one of the cyclone disasters in Qld that devastated the Dog Clubs in that region. Both ladies dressed in blue & White strip PJ's and enticed the winners out of their "Cash" prizes for a bunch of Bananas !

Then there were the Library & Archives NYE shows:

- “Harry Potter Show” complete with Committee in University Gowns and Caps and Ring 1 entrance dressed as Platform 9 ¾; when raffle tickets were $2 each or 3 for $5, but they had run out of the $2 tickets.!
- “Lord of the Rings” with Ring 1 draped in monsters and dragons with a black cauldron pouring smoke from hot ice.

Colleen attended the “International Borzoi Council” gathering at Hemel Hempstead in 1983 and also the Conference of the IBC in Calgary, Canada in 1995. Through Hound Club NSW, she 'hosted' the IBC conference in Sydney in 1998 utilising a lot of the 80+I attendees from around the World to be a part of the official panel of judges for this Hound event .

Colleen was the Secretary of The Hound Club of NSW from the early 80's, being awarded a Life Membership and remained in that position until her failing health required a replacement by her grand-daughter, Rebecca. She sadly succumbed to debilitating illnesses and left this earth on 11th April 2024. She is sadly missed by family and friends.
