Meet our judge, Mr Gary Withers | New Zealand

I started showing dogs as a junior handler in the UK in 1968. My first breeds were Irish and English Setters which I bred under the Lapsewood prefix and started judging Gundogs at Open Show level in 1976. It was while showing my first Irish Setter back in the late 60's I entered a show under the late Bill Siggers who awarded me my first ever first prize. Bill Siggers became a great mentor of mine and sparked my interest in Great Danes, a breed I own and show today. In 1989 I moved to New Zealand and it was here that I saw the opportunity to own my first Great Dane. Since that time under the Lapsewood prefix I have both bred and owned Best In Show - all Breed winners and Best In Show - Specialty show winners. I have been fortunate to judge Specialty shows in Australia, UK, USA, Denmark, Finland and Sweden.

As much as I love Great Danes my heart most definitely lies with my Gundogs and have taken every opportunity to judge my favourite group of dogs both here in New Zealand and in Australia.

Thank you to those who supported our show with trophy donations!
