The President and Committee wish to thank everyone who donated trophies.

The President, Committee and members of The Samoyed Club Of Victoria Inc were deeply saddened and over whelmed over the passing of our long-time friend and esteemed Life Member Mrs Judy Bacon.

Judy's affinity with our club and our breed began over 55 years ago when the Scanlon family acquired their first Samoyed "Wyndalon Royal Mystere" (soon to be the first of many Australian Champions to be homed and shown by Maree and Judy with the establishment of "Monalyto Samoyeds").

Both Judy and her sister Maree also served on the Committee of the Junior Kennel Club enjoying their involvement over some years in the dog world.

Both Judy and Maree married and, whilst Maree drifted away from showing, Judy maintained her interest in the dog world and with her husband Howard by her side, as the handler, they were a familiar pair at dog shows.

Judy went on to hold various positions on the Committee of The Samoyed Club of Victoria Inc and was subsequently awarded Life Membership for her service.

Over the years Judy's knowledge and input to this Club covered many aspects of service from her involvement in Sub-Committees such as The Clubs Puppy Booklet for new owners, The Health Sub-Committee, Committee member, Assistant Secretary, Secretary, and a diligent and dedicated Secretary of the National Samoyed Council Australia.

She was known worldwide by Samoyed people for her collection of historical articles and her magnificent collection of Samoyed statues, which now come under the care and preservation of Howard. Whilst Judy cared greatly about the history of the Samoyed she was extremely passionate about the future and health of the breed she so loved.

Judy was also responsible for building a great data base on The Samoyed Club Of Victoria Inc web site full of valuable information for all dog owners, be they Samoyed or other breed.

Sincerest condolences to Howard, Maree and family.

Judy you will be missed so much by so many, and the dog world has lost one of its shining lights.

Rest In Peace Judy.
