A Message from the President

On behalf of the Cocker Spaniel Society of NSW I'd like to welcome all exhibitors and, of course, their Cockers!

I'd like to extend a warm welcome to our judges, Toni Dennis from Queensland and Linda Buckley from the ACT.

Sadly we have lost someone who was a long time member of the Society and a frequent exhibitor at our shows. Our morning show is in Memory of Lorraine Emerton of Goulburn, owner of Watersmeet Kennels, who passed away last year.

Our shows will see the introduction of a special award for "Baby in Show" in memory of Betty Richter. Betty was our initial contact with the Society when we rescued our first Cocker in 1997 providing much needed advice and initiating a path that has led us here today.

And a special thank you to our committee for organising these shows and to all who have volunteered their assistance in the running of them.

Enjoy the day with your dogs and friends.

Best regards,
Greg Christie
President

The club would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to everyone who have donated to this event!

Meet your Judge (AM) – Ms Toni Dennis (QLD)

Originally brought up in the horse show world as a child, I made the change to dogs when I left home. Our family dogs were Dachshunds but I fell in love with the Cocker Spaniel and decided I would put my heart and soul into learning about them and start showing them.

I have successfully bred and exhibited Cocker Spaniels winning many Royal Challenges, Specialty & All Breeds Best in Show Awards with a number of my dogs for over 35 years.

I have owned and bred Cockers of various colours (Solid and Parti colours), to their Championship Titles, including Grand Championship and Supreme Championship titles along with importing dogs from the UK, USA, NZ and Serbia to enhance bloodlines.

I believe as the custodians of this wonderful breed, we must continue to do our very best in keeping the breed healthy and sound and access the DNA testing available to us to help us achieve this.

I am the Group Coordinator for the Gundog Judges Training Program in Qld, Australia and have also enjoyed mentoring Trainee Judges in Australia and in the USA.

Having enjoyed showing my dogs, I ventured into obtaining my Gundog Judges Licence in 1999 and am now ANKC licenced to Judge all Gundogs, Toys, Terriers, Non-Sporting, Hounds and Working Dog breeds internationally. I have judged throughout Australia including a number of Specialty Shows, and have also judged in New Zealand, Ireland, Sweden, USA and at Windsor Kennel Club and Rotherham & District Cocker Spaniel Specialty Show in the UK and Waverly Gundog Club Scotland.

I Thank the Club for inviting me to Judge at the Lorraine Emerton Memorial Show. I was able to get to know Lorraine very well on our move to Goulburn about 10 years ago. A tough exterior lady but with a heart of gold who was always there if ever I needed her and always checked in on me to make sure we were ok in times of fires etc. She always loved her Cockers and I am sure she will be watching with pride. Thank you to the Exhibitors who have entered under me, it is always a pleasure to judge dogs, but I consider it a true honour to have my fellow peers entrust me with the job of Judging the breed that is truly near and dear to my heart.

President

Meet your judge (PM) – Ms Linda Buckley (ACT)

I started judging in 1985 while living in Adelaide SA where I was breeding and showing English Cocker and Irish Setters.

After moving to Canberra in 1988 I continued my trainee judging and became All Breeds in 2002. Other breeds my daughters and I have been involved with include German Shepherds, English Pointers, Doberman, GSP, Greyhounds, Bearded Collies, Wirehaired Fox Terrier, Whippets, Cavaliers, Jack Russells, Bulldog and American Cocker.

I now Show and breed the Akitas and have had much success in my new Prefix "Blaqaviar" (previously Darqhorse) and I judge several times a year both in Australia and overseas. Countries I have judged are USA, New Zealand, Japan, China, Indonesia, Philippines, Thailand, Brazil, India, South Africa, Sweden and Canada.

I have had the pleasure of judging many Specialty Shows including four Cocker Spaniel Championship Shows, Australian Cattle Dog, Working Dog, Hungarian Vizsla, Rhodesian Ridgeback, American Cocker Spaniel, Dachshund Speciality in Japan, Bearded Collie Speciality in USA, Gordon Setter, Jack Russell Terriers, 4 Labrador Specialties in India, an Akita Specialty in Indonesia and Gundog Specialties.

I have 3 adult daughters and a Granddaughter who are my world. I am a past council member of Dogs ACT and the first life member of the Junior KC of ACT.

The Cocker Spaniel Club of ACT bestowed onto me the role of Patron which is a huge honour. I am now showing a Tri Colour Cavalier King Charles Spaniel and enjoying the last 4 years with "Harry" and soon we will try our hand at sporting events.
