President's Message

Although Hazels passing was in March 2024, we felt that as our upcoming show was a celebration of our 110th year and with planning already well under way, it would overshadow the importance of a memorial.

I became the owner of my very first bulldog in 1996 and as was the done thing I joined the club and dutifully attended meetings. I must admit I was somewhat afraid of this outspoken woman that barked orders at her husband (who was actually the president) and bore a striking resemblance to my primary school headmistress.

Over time I discovered Hazel enjoyed a good discussion and all the better if you could hold your own and get your point across clearly and often with references required. Although she would never have said it herself, I remember fondly a moment at her husband Bills funeral where she took me by the hand and said 'Bill was always very proud of you'

As one of the people entrusted with sorting thru Hazels estate it has bought to light a woman that loved two things more than anything in life – her husband Bill and dogs, there were boxes and boxes of every article imaginable on dogs and countless cards and pictures expressing what dogs meant to us, so many boxes that you got the feeling her third love in life was collecting articles, photographs and letters.

Hazel dedicated many, many years to our club and held several positions, she took great pride in producing the Bullytyn and had a treasure trove of article to draw upon for future issues.

I hope today is a fitting tribute to Hazel's memory, although I do feel that Hazel would be wondering what all the fuss was about. Our Championship Show will be opened by Wendy Boce, Hazels longtime friend, who will share her memories of a lifetime in dogs as we say our final farewell.

Curriculum Vitae - Shane Thomas

I have been part of the dog world for over 20 years now. I have been involved in breeding and showing Griffon Bruxellois, French Bulldogs and Pekingese, and Siberian Huskies. I have also owned and shown various other breeds over the years, but the brachy's are always very special to me.

My involvement in the dog world also stretches into judging and being involved in my state Board, where I served as President for 4 years, and Vice President for 2 years. As an all breed judge, I have judged in many parts of the world including Austria, China, the Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, New Zealand, Norway, Sweden and many other countries. I have had the honour of judging Griffon Bruxellois, French Bulldogs and British Bulldogs at specialty level in several countries.

Vale Hazel O'Hehir

24 December 1930 – 5 March 2024.

Prior to our Centenary Show Hazel was asked to write about her memories with the club.
We share with you Hazel's memoirs of her time with the club and the breed.

During my sixty years membership of the BBCV it has seen many highs and lows. The lows were when we were unable to obtain enough bulldog puppies to supply the demand. This is not surprising with a breed which is recognized as the hardest of all dogs to reproduce easily.

During these low times we were lucky to fill a quorum at the meeting and in our high times we attracted over 75 members every month. These were such fun filled nights and so any lasting friendships were formed during this time

This Club has a proud history and is recorded as being one of the few clubs which still conducted their annual show during the World War 2 (1939 – 1945)

We have had our share of very colorful characters as members at times during its history, of which many entertaining stories could be related. We have also had some very devout and devoted members. My husband Bill, presided as President for 35 years during which he worked extremely hard during some very trying times for the club.

In my time, I have seen our Golden Jubilee Championship Show (60 years) at which time I was the current Secretary, then 15 years later we held our 75th Championship Show which was widely acclaimed by the (then) Kennel Control Council. Much research and hard work went into conducting that very successful show by Bill, our Secretary at the time, Wendy Boce and our very dedicated very hardworking Vice President, Ken Collins who gathered so much memorabilia for our club.

Some of the presidents in my time, from memory have been Leo Hodges, a very long serving member of over 50 years, Jack Bates, Joe Heatley, and our first and only lady president Mrs Peggy Neve. Peggy and her husband John were dedicated hard workers for the Club and very generous with their donations. They donated the beautiful embroidered banner we so proudly displayed at our shows (Now in the Canine Museum).

Apart from having a strong President , the most important thing for the success of any club is for it to have a capable hard working Secretary and this Club was fortunate to have two such people fill this office in the persons of Wendy Boce, (Now a Life Member) Bill bought Wendy over to us from the Bassett Hound Club of Victoria where she had served as Secretary there during his Presidency of that club. Wendy served the Club well in this position for 10 years and she and Bill together overcame problems which arose during that period.

Wendy was followed in this position by the very hard-working Sue Sheran, who put so much effort into producing the draft for our Hereditary Disease Scheme; it is unfortunate this never eventuated, although the Club had been willing to pay all costs for members dogs to be examined by an independent veterinary surgeon.

We even had our "guest" for these two shows, the imported dog, Kilburn Duke, who Ken collected from the bowels of the Melbourne Museum on both occasions and delivered him safely back home again.

An important addition to our Club was our newsletter, the Bullytyn, created and produced by Bill O'Hehir in the mid 1950's. This newsletter created communication between members.

Bertha Harvey, shortly after began a newsletter for the Queensland club and other state clubs followed suit quite some time later.

However, the interaction and exchange of newsletters between the clubs has been invaluable especially in publishing each other's special events.

-Interesting, this year being the centenary of the sinking of the Titanic brings to mind the purchase of my first British Bulldog puppy, Titanic Blue Boy, which was from the Titanic British Bulldog Kennels at Heidelberg. The breeder, a soubrette from England, had come out here in 1912 (fortunately not on the Titanic ship which sank so tragically losing so many lives from all over the world) Her hobby was collecting valuable antiques. I shall never forget that day which was one of the most unusual experiences of my life. As previously stated, we have had ay colorful characters pass through this Club of which any stories could be related.

Bill had looked forward to this special day and had many great plans and ideas for this Centenary Show. Sadly, this was not to be. He and I spent most of our lives enjoying together this wonderful breed, the company we shared, and the many lasting friendships we made over the years. I wish all present members the same lovely experience we had. May the club continue and prosper for many years ahead. I wish it every success for the future.

In Memoriam - Hazel O'Hehir

I have known Hazel for 54 years, having first met her and her husband, Bill, in January 1970 when my family purchased a Basset Hound puppy from them. I was a young teenager at the time. I have vivid memories of visiting their home, at 9 Ryland Avenue, Croydon, and being in awe of the Basset Hounds, and the British Bulldogs, which up until that point, I'd never seen up close and so personally. As we sat and cuddled the litter of Basset puppies, I can recall being somewhat bemused with the banter between Hazel and Bill that day, watching him wandering around the yard, still wearing his pyjamas and blue tartan dressing gown, with a pooper scooper in hand, as Hazel loudly berated and "barked" commands at him, "Bill, let Jock out" "Bill, put Jodie in that yard" "Bill, let Missy out" to which Bill simply replied "yes, Hazel".. Needless to say, Hazel continued to "bark" instructions at Bill throughout the duration of their marriage but, from time to time, usually when chairing Club meetings, Bill would calmly get his chance to get in first with "Hazel, quiet", Hazel stop" or "Hazel, that's enough". Many of us here will also have been on the receiving end of Hazel's commands from time to time.

Hazel was an only child, who grew up in the Northcote/Thornbury area. Educated at Methodist Ladies College, Hazel developed a deep love of reading and was an avid collector of books. Hazel often spoke with pride that she was related to the famous Australian artist & author Norman Lindsay, who was her father's second cousin. Prior to her marriage to Bill on 8 December 1951, Hazel very much enjoyed briefly working at the local primary school teaching reading to Grade 1's, and later working for radio 3UZ in Melbourne as a Clerk. In this job, Hazel made long-standing friendships which endured over many years. Upon her marriage, she and Bill purchased land and built their home and kennels at 9 Ryland Ave, Croydon, where Hazel continued to reside until shortly prior to her death.

Hazel always had a deep love of dogs, and as a child had the companionship of different dogs, and often told me in particular of her very dearly-loved "cross-bred" scruffy terrier. Hazel established her Lyndhaze prefix in 1953 when she and Bill acquired their first British Bulldog, a puppy named Titanic Blue Boy. Hazel and Bill started showing this puppy and soon became emersed in the purebred dog world. Hazel would regularly travel by train to the showgrounds to show her Bulldogs. During the 1950's, through to the 1990's, they successfully bred and exhibited many British Bulldogs, a breed for which they held a life-long passion and dedication. During the 1960's Hazel enjoyed much success with a beautiful bitch, Ch Hainings Miss Chievous, who I saw as an elderly dog, when I first met Hazel. Amongst the top winning British Bulldogs bred by Hazel were her much adored, Ch Lyndhaze Dr Doolittle and Ch Lyndhaze The General, as well as Ch Chajen Crusader and Ch Bayloud Hori. Around 1990, Hazel, in partnership with Judi Spear, imported Graybull's Yankee Lad from the US, which dog added significantly to the breed gene pool at the time.

In 1958 Hazel and Bill introduced a Basset Hound into their kennel, Carillon Empress, and with a small band of enthusiasts, successfully helped re-establish Basset Hounds into Victoria.

Hazel and Bill joined the British Bulldog Club of Victoria in 1953, and in 1968 were foundation members of the Basset Hound Club of Victoria.

Hazel was a respected Life Member of the British Bulldog Club of Victoria and the Basset Hound Club of Victoria, and in recognition of her services to the canine fraternity in this State, Dogs Victoria also awarded her Life Membership.

Over many decades, both Hazel and Bill made a considerable contribution to the history of both the British Bulldog and Basset Hound clubs. Whilst Hazel occupied many executive positions for both Clubs, most notably, her niche was as publicity officer and editor for these Clubs' newsletters. Hazel took much pride in the content of the Bullytyn and the Basset Ear, and always ensured these newsletters were full of interesting and informative articles. During the 1950's and 1960's Hazel also served on the committees of the Non-Sporting Dog Club of Victoria and the Hound Club of Victoria.

Hazel enjoyed sharing stories of her early beginnings into the dog show world, including tales of the many interesting, like-minded dog enthusiasts from all walks of life, whom she came to know and love, and the odd "dislike". Hazel very much had a theatrical touch in her story-telling, and whilst some liberty may have been taken with an embellishment or two, her stories were enlightening and often created much laughter.

During the 80's Hazel took up "Knit-wit" sewing, and became very industrious not only making outfits for herself, and shirts for Bill, but sewing an abundance of lingerie items, keeping me and others in good supply of these frilly items. Aside from reading and her dogs, Hazel always had the TV on, and she was a great fan of the soaps, The Bold and The Beautiful and The Days of our Lives. Every morning she and Bill started their day eating breakfast and watching Bert & Ernie on Sesame Street. Stuffed toys of Bert & Ernie took pride of place on a loungeroom chair. Another of her favourite shows was "Keeping Up Appearances" and the main character Hyacinth Bucket she thought hilarious. My husband, Arve and I often joked that Hyacinth bore uncanny similarities to our Hazel, particularly in the portrayed mannerisms, the walk and the outfits.

I started showing my Basset puppy during 1970, and was mentored and firmly instructed by Hazel in the finer art of training and presenting the show dog, including what to wear, and importantly, that it was the "right" colour to compliment my dog. So, I took note and like Hazel, I too wore green, and was probably known as the "mini me" walking around shows with Hazel, both of us wearing our "greens". To this day, I continue to heed Hazel's instructions, and when showing my Bassets, wear a green jacket.

From the moment I met Bill and Hazel, an enduring close friendship developed, and I would attend dog shows with them, helping show the Bulldogs and Bassets, and learning so much from them about these breeds, often staying at their home on weekends. Bill and Hazel were godparents to my eldest son, and over the years, Hazel would always show interest in my children's development. Each year my family shared Boxing Day with Bill & Hazel, which was also Hazel's birthday. They would host club functions at their home from time to time. With their encouragement, I went on to qualify as a dog judge of not only Bassets and Bulldogs, but many other breeds. From the small beginning when my first Basset Hound came into my life, Bill and Hazel opened up the wider world of dogs for me, and 54 years later, I am still enjoying and emersed in this hobby which has taken me to different parts of the world, and making many friends.

Hazel was a complex character, but most who knew her well, will attest to her generous heart and willingness to offer assistance at any time of the day or night when we most needed help with our dogs. Hazel was also very fond of spirited and oft unexpected heated discussion, and I'm sure those who knew Hazel would no doubt have also been on the receiving end of her strongly held views.

After Bill's death on 23 March 2006, Hazel ceased being active in the dog world, but she continued to share her home with her remaining British Bulldogs, and her cats.

Many people owe their success in both British Bulldogs and Basset Hounds to Hazel who so generously mentored and instilled into others her passion and dedication for these breeds. Hazel's knowledge of the dogs, and their pedigrees was extensive, and she never hesitated to offer advice for planned breeding's.

Hazel is once again reunited with Bill, and was no doubt greeted by the many Lyndhaze British Bulldogs and Bassets Hounds over the Rainbow Bridge, including one scruffy little terrier.

Curriculum Vitae - Dominick Mastroianni

My journey in the dog show world began in 2009, when I welcomed my first purebred French Bulldog and British Bulldog—an experience that sparked a lifelong passion for these incredible breeds.

Since 2014, I've been actively involved in the show scene, dedicating my early years (2014–2016) to learning from experienced breeders how to handle and exhibit at Dog Shows. This has helped me to develop a deeper understanding of the breeds I love.

In 2016, I bred my first litter, marking a significant milestone in my journey.

Since then, I've successfully exhibited multiple Champions and Grand Champions under the Mambilou prefix. This has primarily been with French Bulldogs totalling 26 across my showing career. I have also had the privilege of championing British Bulldogs. I remain deeply passionate about these two brachycephalic breeds and continue to advocate for their excellence and soundness in the show ring.

Over the years, I've developed a growing interest in judging, and I'm incredibly honoured and excited to receive my first judging appointment with the British Bulldog Club of Victoria. It's a privilege to be entrusted with such a prestigious breed, and I would like to sincerely thank the Club for this opportunity, as well as the exhibitors for entering and showcasing their beautiful dogs.
