Gwen Ford nee Foyle

13 Sept 1947- 31 Mar 2026

Gwen and her family have always had Dogs, they were a part of her life. The first family dog she could remember was a curly coat retriever. She started going to dogs show when she was 12, helping her big sister with her corgis in Adelaide that would have been in 1959. When she moved Darwin, she had a corgi and in the mid 1970's decided to get a Beagle from Danny & Vicky Scott. Her first beagle was Scottholme Encore. We called him Beau. He was also her first big winner; he won 5 All Breeds Best in Shows and countless of other awards he quickly got his show Champion and even his Companion Dog (CD) title. It was then I meet Gwen and became great friends as we were both hooked by Dogs. We not only show Beagles but also Dobermanns which was my Breed. Both breed, we made up many Champions and working dog titles. We were pretty well inseparable for 50 years, Gwen was always happy to give back to the Dog world and served on many dog clubs, even started new ones. She even organised trips all over the world to attend Dog events and learned more about Dogs. She soon became a Dog Judge and judged Beagles all over the world. She believed in constantly learning, she was happy to pass on her knowledge to those who wanted to learn. Especially to young people starting off with Beagles. However, she could be quite tough, if someone ask her for an opinion on their dog, she always started with before I do, be aware I will not sugar coat this, I will tell you about the good points & the not so good points and any bad points if your happy with that bring me your dog. Further she always gave her reasons why she made such statements. She was the most truthful woman I have even know, she critiqued me the same way! She has a mass of books and literature on Beagles and all dogs, not just show dogs. She originally wrote here little book "Thoughts on Judging the Beagle" in 1999, her last update was done May 2019, 20 years later. Gwen was also very keen to understand the working beagle, she believed there should not be any difference between the two. Some of you may remember when we had our Farm in the Victorian High, the drag Hunts that Gwen organised, they were great fun.

Gwen was also a great Artist, and she did many portraits of Beagles, Dobermanns and other dogs plus the human form of women.

Gwen had a very full life, and it was not all about dogs, she had many interests and when I would suggest I want to do some other activity she just assumed we were doing that together and she was usually the one who said let's do it!

She was my friend, my lover and my Hero and sadly missed by me, Eadie & Chase,
Doug Ford.
