Patricia (Pat) Lumsden
4/06/1944 - 14/04/2026

We would like to take this opportunity to remember Pat Lumsden – Life Member and President of Eaglehawk Kennel Club. Pat has been a member of the Bendigo & Eaglehawk Kennel Clubs since April 2009 and also Castlemaine. In July 2012 Pat was elected Vice President of Eaglehawk KC and she was elected at President in July 2019. In fact, it was only at our last AGM when she was re-elected as President that she said it was going to be her last year in that position. In November 2024 she was made a Life Member of Eaglehawk Kennel Club.

A number of Conformation people will also remember Pat as the Parking Supervisor at the Bendigo Shows where she meticulously set out parking areas for officials and the disabled and woe betide anyone who didn't think it applied to them. She also worked tirelessly wherever she was needed – be it in the kitchen, on the desk or around the rings. She also helped at a number of other country shows, both in Victoria and New South Wales.

Pat served for 30 years in the army and a lot of this time was in the Survey Regiment based at Fortuna. She knew how to use her voice to bring meetings or crowds to order. Pat has always loved dogs (especially her favourites – Pembroke Welsh Corgis) and grew up with Corgi's as a child. Her last two dogs were both Tri colours, Skrinkle and Risca, which she enjoyed doing Performance sports with, especially Tracking and Track & Search, and in the case of Skrinkle also Conformation. Risca was COONDARBY BLACK JACK and Skrinkle was Dual CH (T) TS Grand CH COONDARBY TRI MY PACIENCE

Pat joined the Bendigo Obedience Dog Club in 1984, and as well as being a Life Member she also held the offices of Secretary, Treasurer and President over the years. She was also the Tracking Trial Secretary from it's beginning in 2001 until last year. She ran her Tracking Trials with Army precision and a sense of humour.

In the early days of Bendigo Obedience Club's Obedience Trials, a roast lunch was served for everyone in the big hall next to the Clubrooms in Finn St. Pat oversaw setting the tables and they were done with military precision, tablecloths, cutlery and crockery and she decorated them with camelias from her garden. She was always interested in your family and could remember the children's names and wanted to know what they were up to. This continued through the years and then included the grandchildren when they were born.

In later years when Pat's health wasn't very good, she still wanted to be involved in her clubs. She liked to attend the shows and trials even if it was only for a short time. Thank you, Pat, for your generosity to your Clubs and your friends. You had a kind, caring heart and will be missed by many, not just in Bendigo but throughout Victoria and Interstate.

R.I.P. Pat

Thank you to all our judges and stewards as well as all who entered, We hope you have a fabulous time in Bendigo and drive home safely

Thank you to our sponsors
