OUR JUDGE

Mrs Jennifer Bell (USA)

I am a preservation Beagle breeder under the prefix, Fleur de Lis, but started in Great Danes, where Blues were my main colour to breed, but I did breed other colours. Whilst handling I titled Danes in every colour (except Merle as this was not an allowable colour at the time) and also finished dogs with both cropped and natural ears.

I am now a licensed AKC judge of 25 breeds plus all-breed Junior Showmanship. My journey in purebred dogs started when I was a small child with our Labradors working in hunt tests. Watching our Labradors work in the field and in water was where I first saw the importance of form and function. Then in 1996, I started showing dogs - Great Danes, and later, was an all-breed professional handler for 15 years.

My focus as a judge is to find beautiful breed type, structure, and balanced movement, in a fair and efficient manner. Protecting breed type, health, and temperament are my main goals in and out of the ring.

I've judged many breed specialties in many breeds including Great Danes, Boston Terriers, Beagles, Akitas, and Neopolitan Mastiffs. This year I will be judging bitches at 2026 Great Dane Club of America National Specialty.
