President's Report

Thank you to our committee, members, exhibitors and sponsors for their continued support of the Fox Terrier Club of NSW.

Our annual Specialty remains an important event for the Club. We are pleased with the support received in what are challenging times for breed clubs and exhibitors.

We sincerely thank Royal Canin for their generous sponsorship in 2026 and are delighted to have secured their support again for 2027.

Looking ahead, an important item for discussion at this AGM is the timing of our 2027 Specialty, and how we can select the best date and format to encourage a strong entry.

Thank you to everyone who continues to support our Club and our breeds.

Secretary's Report

Thank you to our committee, members and exhibitors, and particularly to the many people who sponsored classes, trophies and prizes for this year's Specialty.

We are very pleased that Royal Canin has committed to sponsoring the Club again in 2027, giving us a strong foundation for next year's event.

Our specialty has attracted 44 entries, one of the important discussions at this AGM will be the date and arrangements for our 2027 Championship Show and how we can maximise entries and participation. The agenda includes consideration of remaining with the Spring Fair weekend or exploring an alternative arrangement.

Thank you to everyone who has supported the Club, especially Donna and Nathan Johnson who have completed our show trophy table.

Leanne Duval
Secretary

General Meeting

Discussion/ - Date for next Ch show

Do we keep the Spring Fair weekend or move to be held in conjunction with the Smooth Fox Terrier Club?

Factors -

Spring Fair = no set up and judge/ring provided. Attracts interstate exhibitors. More than 30 entries the fee is $341 (our entries attract approx $860) Sashes and framed rosettes covered by sponsors. Royal canin sponsorship adds to the trophy table. Nathan and Donna Johnson made all other trophies.

Thursday/Friday show date not easy for working exhibitors

Move away from spring fair - we would need to contract a judge and pay possible airfare/meals and accommodation.
