Introducing Our Judge

Fran Fricker - Kerman Cardigan Welsh Corgis

As a young child there was always a dog of some description in our family home and if at any point we were without one I would quite often bring one home from a neighbour.

Living next door to the famous Caswell Pembrokeshire Corgis it was inevitable that a son of Caswell Duskie Knight came to live with us. This was in the early 60's and we were encouraged to go to the local shows in those days you had exemption shows (dogs need not be kennel club registered for this and they were fun shows). Sanction and Limited shows which when you won at Championship shows you soon became not eligible for these and the Open shows. It was here you really learnt what showing dogs was about as they encouraged newcomers, and you saw the top kennels of the day bring out their puppies who would grow up to be future champions.

Though we had fun and loved our boy dearly he was not the best in the judges eyes (he was to us) so we approached a kennel for a puppy and from then on we were seriously bitten by the showing bug. Pembrokes red and white and tri-colour came to live and to be exhibited from Evancoyd, Kilvewood, Rowell, Belroyd and Tindervale. We then applied for a kennel name from the kennel club Ker coming from the end of our surname Fricker and Man from Manor Road where we used to live. This was granted and Kerman came to be known this was granted in the late 1960's and was owned jointly by my parents and I.

Then we noticed the Cardigans and in the early 70's they arrived at Kerman, dogs and bitches with breeding lines from Lees and the Rhiwelli kennel of Eddie Young,

WELSH CORGI CLUB OF TASMANIA 53rd SPECIALTY CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW 2025

Andersley, Grangefield and Wendac. This was the start and we have never looked back. The addition of Joseter and Antoc lines followed, and all proved very successful and complimented our existing lines well. Today my bitch line is very strong and goes back thirteen generations in direct line. I am a strong believer in line breeding and having exported Cardigans across the world. I can now have lines from Russia, Australia, USA and Europe back into my gene pool with connections. There have been many Champions carrying the Kerman name here in the UK and overseas. There have been 16 UK Champions to date of these 5 have been campaigned to American, European, Scandinavian and UK titles. Many CC and res CC winners who were not shown fully to their titles but made a big impact on the breed through their progeny for many kennels in the UK and overseas.

I have shown competitively overseas winning club shows and world titles. Gaining Top Awards for the breed here in the UK. My latest being Champion Kerman Pitch The Ball he was also the 16th UK champion for Kerman. Others are knocking at the door for that all important 3rd CC.

Over the years Kerman has been lucky to have top kennel, top bitch, top brood and top puppy.

My parents were also active in the breed and judged at all levels entering a team of dogs when our breed was close to becoming rare. Sadly they are no longer here.

Other breeds have also been exhibited at Kerman, Whippets, Bedlington Terriers and American Cocker Spaniels with success. As a teenager I was lucky to help at other kennels and learned valuable lessons on breed standards, exercise, development and nutrition which I reflect on today. Whippets Anne Knight Dondelayo, Wally Topham Wetop Bedlington's, Andrew Caine Ballantrae American Cocker Spaniels. Due to our shows being over a number of days we decided to concentrate on the Cardigans and Pembrokes.

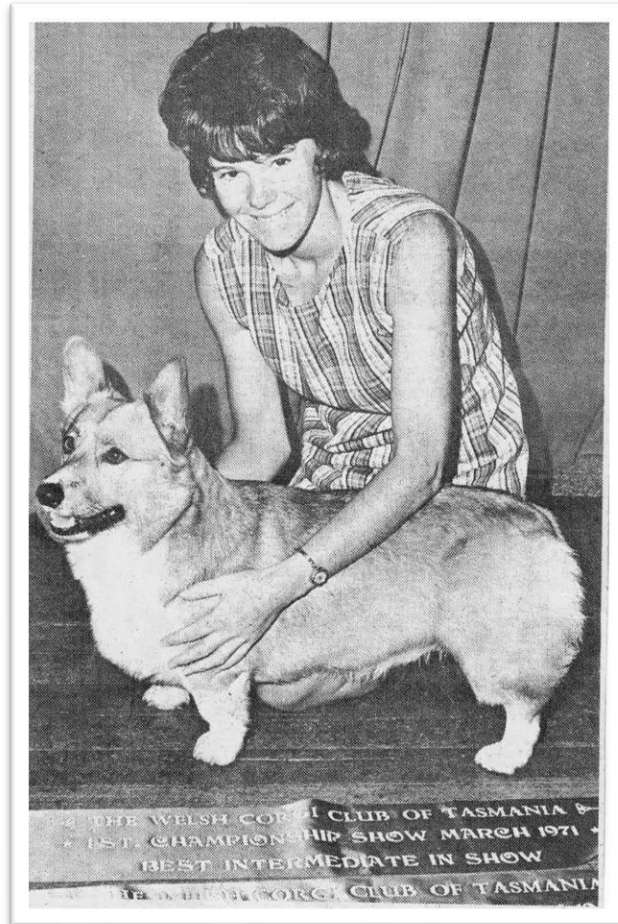

I started judging in the mid 70's as a teenager and have progressed from there. I have had the pleasure of judging my breed at Crufts and have officiated throughout the world at breed specialties for both Pembrokes and Cardigans. I award CC's in both breeds and have awarded CC's for Pembrokes 10 times and for Cardigans 17 times and have appointments both UK and overseas into the future. I have also awarded BIS 7 times at dual breed club championship shows.

I have also served on various breed clubs in a variety of positions to include The Cardigan Welsh Corgi Association. Currently I am Show Manager for my local all-breed canine society and serve on the committee of The Midland Welsh Corgi Club. I look forward to fulfilling this appointment and consider it an honour and a pleasure to officiate at your breed specialty.

FRAN FRICKER - KERMAN

Special Thanks to Pat Whitley for her generous support of the Welsh Corgi Club of Tasmania.

Here is a little about Pat's involvement with her Corgis and club.

I acquired my first Corgi, Shadwyn Tony Pandy (Shad), from Victorian breeder Mrs. Jean Justin, in 1969. He gained his champion title with four 25-point challenges (2 BIS and 2 BIG) before the age of 18 months. I was bitten by the Show bug and two other "Shadwyn" dogs came to live with me, both of whom attained their Champion titles. Champion was the highest status that could be obtained in those days as Supreme and Grand Champion titles were not around.

I became a member of the Welsh Corgi Club of Tasmania when I started showing Shad and supported their activities when I was able. Living on the North West Coast, this meant a lot of travelling - usually to Launceston or Hobart with the odd trip to Ross or Campbell Town thrown in. I used to drive to Hobart and back in one day, but later I was able to stay overnight at the Sweets or the Dicksons, which made life a lot easier.

At the Club's first Specialist Championship Show, held in March 1971, Shad was awarded Best Opposite in Show by U.K. judge and Corgi specialist Dickie Albin. Back in those days, from memory Noel Sweet was President, Pam Stagg Secretary and Betty Maxwell Treasurer.

WELSH CORGI CLUB OF TASMANIA 53rd SPECIALTY CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW 2025

I bred one litter of pups and decided this was not for me – I wanted to keep them all!

In 1989 I acquired Shadwyn Shiloh. Dog schools were the latest fashion, so off we went to “puppy class”. This sparked my interest in Obedience training and led to entering him in Obedience Trials. After a lot of hard work Shiloh finally attained his Utility Dog (UD) title - at the time being the highest title on offer. He was the first Welsh Corgi (Pembroke) in Tasmania to do so (verified by Dogs Tasmania) and I believe he still is.

I dabbled in agility, Rally obedience and Tricks with my subsequent dogs but did not compete in any official events. At the moment a friend is trying to talk me into doing a Scent work course she is running, and I just might take her up on it.

Currently I am owned by two spoiled rotten dogs, Rajah (10) and Mystique (7 and a half).
